KLAMATH FALLS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1909.

HINTS TO LOVERS.

Select the girl. Agree with the girl's father in politics and with her mother in religion. If you have a rival, keep your eye on him; if he is a widower, keep two eyes on him.

Do not assure the girl that you have no bad habits. It will be enough for you to say that you never heard yourself snore in your sleep.

Do not put too much sweet stuff on paper. If you do you will hear it read in after years when your wife has some special purpose in inflicting upon you the severest punishment known to a married man.

Go home at a reasonable hour in the evening. Do not wait till the girl has to throw her whole soul into a yawn that she cannot cover with both hands. A little thing like that may cause a coolness at the very beginning of the game.

If, while wearing your new summer trousers for the first time you sit down on some candy that little Willie has left on the chair, smile sweetly and remark that you do not mind sitting on candy at all, and that "boys will be boys." Reserve your true feeling for future reference.

If, on the occasion of your first call, the girl upon whom you have placed your affections looks like an iceberg and acts like a quiet, cold wave, take your leave and stay away. Women in her hours of freeze is uncertain, coy, and hard to please.

In cold weather, flash saying "Good-night" in the house. Do not stretch it all the way to the front gate, if there is a front gate, and thus lay the foundation for future asthma, bronchitis, neuralgia and chronic catarrh, to help you to worry the girl to death after she has married you.

Do not be too soft. Do not say, "These little hands shall never do a stroke of work while they are mine," and "You shall have nothing to do in our home but to sit all day long and chirp to the canaries"—as if a sensible woman could be happy fooling away valuable time in that sort of style! Besides, she may have a fine, retentive memory for the soft things and silly promises of courtship and occasionally, in after years, when she is washing the dinner dishes or patching your trousers, she will remind you of them in a cold, sarcastic tone of voice.

Few events of the coming year, especially among close students and scholars, are regarded with more interest than the centenary that is to be celebrated in the middle of this month at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, the alma mater of Edgar Allan Poe, who was born on January 19, 1809. According to the tentative program prepared by members of the faculty in conjunction with others equally as directly interested in the coming centennial observance, the room in the university that was occupied by the poet as a student will be formally opened on January 16, as the Poe museum. On the following day, Sunday, a memorial sermon will be preached in the chapel of the institution. On the morning of Monday, January 18, the many guests of the university, quite a number of whom will be foreigners of distinction, will be taken on a pilgrimage to the Ragged Mountains, made famous by Poe's stories; in the afternoon The Ravens, a society consisting of students who have won distinction by intellectual achievements as under graduates, will celebrate the occasion with a program drawn from his lyrics. The birthday will be reserved for addresses and appreciations from eminent persons. A discourse in French on "Poe in France," another in German on "Poe in Germany," poetical tributes also in foreign languages, and letters from distinguished men of letters abroad; all to be concluded with the national tribute which will include one address, poems and letters.

A NEW RECIPE FOR CRULLERS.

Cream half a pound of butter with three-quarters of a pound of powdered sugar, mix with them six well-beaten eggs, cinnamon and nutmeg to taste, and enough flour to make a dough you can roll out. The dough should be a little stiff. Roll into a thin sheet, cut into any shape you wish and drop into deep boiling fat. Drop in one to try the heat of the fat. It should rise to the surface almost immediately and brown quickly. Cut out all you mean to cook before you begin, for after you once get them cooking you will have no time to stop for more. Should the fat get too hot, move it to the side of the stove. Have ready a colander lined with soft paper and lay the crullers in this as you take them from the fat with a split spoon. Sprinkle them with powdered sugar, and when they are cold put in a tin box with a cover or in a stone crock.—Delineator.

YONNA VALLEY ITEMS.

On Xmas day a good dinner and a Xmas tree furnished a pleasant time for over thirty guests, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Smyth, of Upper Yonna Valley. After dinner the young folks enjoyed a fine sleigh ride, and each received a present from old Santa. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hammersley and son, Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Michaels and children, Mr. and Mrs. Alf Wallis, Ludwig Sterl, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Woelk and children, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Bliss, Grandma Logue, Miss Nellie Bliss, John, James and Will Logue, Chas. Sherman, Chas. Liskey, the Misses Anna, Mary and Clara Smyth, Orville Smyth and John Donnell.

Those attending the masked ball at Bonanza from Yonna were: Miss Theresa Sterl, who masked as a "German Girl;" Miss Hazel Fitch as "Night," and Joe Sterl as "Uncle Sam." Those attending unmasked were Mrs. L. M. Fitch and Jesse Drew.

Miss Nett Drew came home from the Falls to spend the week of vacation with her mother, Mrs. N. S. Drew.

Mrs. August Flackus and grandson, Edward, visited at Fred Beck's home last week and heard the new phonograph.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Simpson spent Xmas at the home of C. C. Pearson.

Claude Clifton and Willie Coburn came down from the Reservation last week with a band of cattle for Chas. Horton, which are to be fed at the Colahan ranch in the upper part of this valley.

O. Hoppe, of Upper Yonna, is expecting a visit from his brother, who will soon arrive from Germany.

Mrs. N. S. Drew was in Dairy on business Friday.

Mike Rueck has purchased some hogs from Hans Stoehler, of Dairy. Many of the farmers of this section are putting up ice though it has not been very thick as yet.

James Colahan, who lived for years in Yonna Valley, had the misfortune to fall and break his leg about a week ago. The way it happened was very strange for he was walking along on frozen ground when his foot twisted, breaking the bones of the ankle.

The teacher and pupils of Hillbrand enjoyed a pleasant day last Wednesday at school. The older pupils and teacher had prepared a beautiful tree, and even old Santa made them a visit which helped considerably with the merriment. Each child received candy and presents and all had a very nice time. The children sang, played and told stories until time to go home, when they left as happy children could be.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker will spend the winter in Los Angeles. They expect to start in a few days.

Karl Adams, of Yonna, hauled a load of wood to Chas. Sherman, of Dairy, and on his return bought oats of L. A. Sterl at 2 cents per pound. L. A. Sterl brought some of his cattle to Dairy to be fed by Henry Stoehler, as his own feed is very scarce this winter.

Some people manage to beat his satanic majesty about the bush by lying with their mouths closed.

A man gets lonesome in the city when his wife is spending a few weeks in the country—so he writes and tells her.
